

New York Destroyed--War Is On!

"The Battle Cry of Peace," a film drama, shows a war not at wireless and cable range, but within the corporate limits on New York City. There are thrills by the yard, horrors slowly drawn out inch by inch, and not a few feet of good comedy. The achievements of the camera are remarkable. Some idea of the size of the offering is gained when it is said that in support of the company there was introduced 16,000 National Guardsmen, 800 G. A. R. members, 5,000 horses and seventeen aeroplanes, with Zeppelins, seaplanes, submarines, dreadnoughts, battleships, torpedo boats and armored motor cars. See all this at the Star Theatre, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 18, 19 and 20, in

THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE!

There is a series of thrilling pictures of the siege of New York, showing bombardments from the land, sea and sky; the Wall street district in flames; a conquering army marching through the streets and the dynamiting of public buildings, to say nothing of a score of other sensational happenings.
